

We the People Book Club

September 3, 2018 - August 26, 2019

The We the People Book Club is a year-long program designed to strengthen your vision of democracy and connections with others by exploring novels, short stories, poetry, and essays:

September - The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck
October - The Underground Railroad by Colson Whitehead
November - A Good Man Is Hard to Find by Flannery O'Connor
December - Poetry
January - Tenth of December by George Saunders
February - Gilead by Marilynne Robinson
March - Puddnhead Wilson by Mark Twain
April - The Fire Next Time by James Baldwin
and Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates
May - Ceremony by Leslie Marmon Silko
June - The Sympathizer by Viet Thanh Nguyen
July - The Partly-Cloudy Patriot by Sarah Vowell
August - Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston

You can participate in two ways:

1. Sign up to be in the We the People Book Club Practice Circle:

- Receive emails with discussion questions every Monday.
- Post comments and read the thoughts of others in an online Practice Circle.
- $24 for the year covers the cost of the emails, the forum setup, and technical help.
- Read more and subscribe here:

2. Download a Reading Guide:

- Follow along on your own or with your book club.
- Reading guides will be available each month.
- In September, visit PracticingDemocracy.net to download the first guide.

This book club is being offered by The Practicing Democracy Project, a collaboration between The Center for Spirituality & Practice and the Fetzer Institute.
